

Your chance to vote

The Lost Man Booker Prize shortlist was announced at a special event at the Sunday Times Oxford Literary Festival on 25 March 2010.

The judges - Rachel Cooke, ITN newsreader, Katie Derham and poet and novelist, Tobias Hill - chose the shortlist but the winner of The Lost Man Booker Prize will be decided by the international reading public.

To cast your vote simply go to www.themanbookerprize.com and select your favourite book from the six shortlisted titles:

Nina Bawden The Birds on the Trees
J G Farrell Troubles
Shirley Hazzard The Bay of Noon
Mary Renault Fire from Heaven
Muriel Spark The Driver's Seat
Patrick White The Vivisector

The public vote closes on 30 April 2010.
The overall winner will be announced on 19 May 2010.

www.themanbookerprize.com

sponsored by

ManGroup plc

Your chance to vote

The Lost Man Booker Prize shortlist was announced at a special event at the Sunday Times Oxford Literary Festival on 25 March 2010.

The judges - Rachel Cooke, ITN newsreader, Katie Derham and poet and novelist, Tobias Hill - chose the shortlist but the winner of The Lost Man Booker Prize will be decided by the international reading public.

To cast your vote simply go to www.themanbookerprize.com and select your favourite book from the six shortlisted titles:

Nina Bawden The Birds on the Trees
J G Farrell Troubles
Shirley Hazzard The Bay of Noon
Mary Renault Fire from Heaven
Muriel Spark The Driver's Seat
Patrick White The Vivisector

The public vote closes on 30 April 2010.
The overall winner will be announced on 19 May 2010.

www.themanbookerprize.com

sponsored by

ManGroup plc

